COMPLAINT FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF AND DAMAGES

Plaintiffs, Burberry Limited, a United Kingdom company, and Burberry Limited, a New York corporation (collectively “Plaintiffs” or “Burberry”) hereby sue Defendants, the Individuals, Business Entities, and Unincorporated Associations identified in the caption above and set forth on Schedule “A” hereto (collectively “Defendants”). Defendants are promoting, selling, offering for sale and/or distributing goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and confusingly similar imitations of Burberry’s trademarks and/or unauthorized copies of Burberry’s copyrighted work within this district through various Internet based e-commerce stores operating on the AliExpress.com and DHGate.com platforms under the store identification numbers set forth on Schedule “A” (the “Store IDs”). In support of its claims, Burberry alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is an action for injunctive relief and damages for federal trademark counterfeiting and infringement, false designation of origin, copyright infringement, common law unfair competition, and common law trademark infringement pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1114, 1116, 1125(a), 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq, The All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C §1651(a) and Florida’s common law. Accordingly, this Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1121, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq, and 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338. This Court has supplemental jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 over Burberry's state law claims because those claims are so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy.

2. Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district, because they direct business activities toward and conduct business with consumers throughout the United States, including within the State of Florida and this district, through at least e-commerce stores accessible and doing business in Florida and operating under the Store IDs. Alternatively, based on their contacts with the United States, Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this district pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2) because (i) Defendants are not subject to jurisdiction in any state's court of general jurisdiction; and (ii) exercising jurisdiction is consistent with the United States Constitution and laws.

3. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 since Defendants are, upon information and belief, non-residents in the United States and engaged in infringing activities and causing harm within this district by advertising, offering to sell, selling, and/or shipping infringing products into this district.

THE PLAINTIFFS

4. Plaintiff Burberry Limited is a company duly organized and existing under the laws of the United Kingdom with its principal place of business at Horseferry House, Horseferry Road, London, SW1P 2AW, United Kingdom ("Burberry Limited (UK)"). Plaintiff Burberry Limited is a corporation duly organized pursuant to the laws of the State of New York with a principal place of business at 444 Madison Avenue, New York, New York, 10022

(“Burberry Limited (US)”). Collectively, Burberry Limited (UK) and Burberry Limited (US) are referred to herein as “Burberry.” Burberry is, in part, engaged in the business of manufacturing and distributing throughout the world, including within this district, a variety of high-quality luxury goods under multiple world-famous common law and federally registered trademarks including those identified in Schedule “B” hereto, as well as its copyrighted work, as discussed in Paragraph 15 below and identified in Schedule “C” hereto. Burberry offers for sale and sells its trademarked goods and goods bearing its copyrighted work within the State of Florida, including this district and throughout the United States. Defendants, through the sale and offers for sale of counterfeit and infringing Burberry branded products, are directly and unfairly competing with Burberry’s economic interests in the United States, including the State of Florida and causing Burberry irreparable harm within this jurisdiction.

5. Like many other famous trademark and copyright owners in the luxury goods market, Burberry suffers ongoing daily and sustained violations of their trademark rights at the hands of counterfeiters and infringers, such as Defendants herein, who wrongfully reproduce, copy, and/or counterfeit Burberry’s trademarks and copyrights for the twin purposes of (i) duping and confusing the consuming public and (ii) earning substantial profits across their e-commerce stores. The natural and intended byproduct of Defendants’ combined actions is the erosion and destruction of the goodwill associated with Burberry’s name and associated intellectual properties and the destruction of the legitimate market sector in which it operates.

6. To combat the indivisible harm caused by the concurrent actions of Defendants and others engaging in similar conduct, each year Burberry expends significant monetary resources in connection with intellectual property enforcement efforts, including legal fees and investigative fees. The exponential growth of counterfeiting over the Internet, including through online marketplace and social media platforms, has created an environment that requires companies, such as Burberry, to expend significant resources across a wide spectrum of efforts, in order to protect both consumers and itself from confusion and the erosion of the goodwill connected to Burberry's brand.

THE DEFENDANTS

7. Defendants are individuals, business entities of unknown makeup or unincorporated associations, each of whom, upon information and belief, either reside and/or operate in foreign jurisdictions, redistribute products from the same or similar sources in those locations, and/or ship their goods from the same or similar sources in those locations consumers as well as shipping and fulfillment centers, warehouses, and/or storage facilities within the United States to redistribute their products from those locations. Defendants have the capacity to be sued pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b). Defendants target their business activities toward consumers throughout the United States, including within this district, through the simultaneous operation of, at least, their commercial e-commerce stores under the Store IDs.

8. Defendants use aliases in connection with the operation of their businesses.

9. Defendants are the past and present controlling forces behind the sale of products bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of Burberry's trademarks and/or unauthorized copies of its copyrighted work as described herein.

10. Defendants directly engage in unfair competition with Burberry by advertising, offering for sale, and selling goods each bearing and/or using counterfeits and infringements of one or more of Burberry's trademarks and/or unauthorized copies of its copyrighted work to consumers within the United States and this district through Internet based e-commerce stores and/or websites using, at least, the Store IDs as well as store identification numbers not yet known to Burberry. Defendants have purposefully directed some portion of their unlawful activities towards consumers in the State of Florida through the advertisement, offer to sell, sale, and/or shipment of counterfeit and infringing Burberry branded goods into the State.

11. Defendants have registered, established or purchased, and maintained their Store IDs. Defendants may have engaged in fraudulent conduct with respect to the registration or maintenance of the Store IDs by providing false and/or misleading information to the relevant e-commerce platforms where they offer to sell and/or sell. Many Defendants have registered and/or maintained some of their Store IDs for the sole purpose of engaging in unlawful counterfeiting and infringing activities.

12. Defendants will likely continue to register or acquire new alias store identification numbers or other aliases, and related payment accounts, for the purpose of selling and/or offering for sale goods bearing and/or using counterfeit and confusingly similar imitations of one or more of Burberry's trademarks or Copyrighted Work unless permanently enjoined.

13. Defendants' Store IDs, associated payment accounts, and any other alias e-commerce store names, store identification numbers, and seller identification names used in connection with the sale of counterfeit and infringing goods bearing and/or using one or more of Burberry's trademarks and/or unauthorized copies of Burberry's copyrighted work are essential components of Defendants' online activities and are one of the means by which Defendants further their counterfeiting and infringement scheme and cause harm to Burberry. Moreover, Defendants are using Burberry's famous brand name and trademarks to drive Internet consumer traffic to their e-commerce stores operating under the Store IDs, thereby increasing the value of the Store IDs and decreasing the size and value of Burberry's legitimate marketplace and intellectual property rights at Burberry's expense.

COMMON FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Burberry's Business and Intellectual Property Rights

14. Burberry is the owner of all rights in and to the trademarks identified on Schedule “B” hereto, which are valid and registered on the Principal Register of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (collectively the “Burberry Marks”). The Burberry Marks are used in connection with the manufacture and distribution of high-quality goods in the categories identified above. Additionally, Burberry is the owner of the Copyrighted Work entitled “TB Pattern” under the United States Copyrighted Work Registration Number VA 2-145-324 (the “Burberry Copyrighted Work”), as identified on Schedule “C” hereto. Burberry’s ownership and registration of the Burberry Copyrighted Work precedes Defendants’ infringement as alleged herein. True and correct copies of the Certificates of Registration for the Burberry Marks and the Burberry Copyrighted Work are attached hereto as Composite Exhibit “1.” The Burberry Marks and the Burberry Copyrighted Work are referred to collectively herein as the “Burberry Intellectual Property.”

15. The Burberry Intellectual Property has been used in interstate commerce to identify and distinguish Burberry’s high-quality goods for an extended period of time.

16. The Burberry Intellectual Property has been used by Burberry in commerce long prior in time to Defendants’ use of copies of that intellectual property. The Burberry Intellectual Property has never been assigned or licensed to any of the Defendants in this matter.

17. The Burberry Marks and Copyrighted Work are symbols of Burberry’s quality, reputation and goodwill and have never been abandoned. Burberry has carefully monitored and policed the use of the Burberry Intellectual Property.

18. The Burberry Intellectual Property is well known and famous and has been for many years. Burberry expends substantial resources developing, advertising and otherwise promoting the Burberry Intellectual Property. The Burberry Marks qualify as famous marks as that term is used in 15 U.S.C. §1125(c)(1).

19. Further, Burberry extensively uses, advertises, and promotes the Burberry Intellectual Property in the United States in association with the sale of high-quality luxury goods. Burberry has expended enormous resources promoting the Burberry Intellectual Property and products bearing such intellectual property. In recent years, annual sales of products bearing the Burberry Intellectual Property have totaled in the many millions of dollars within the United States.

20. As a result of Burberry's efforts, members of the consuming public readily identify merchandise bearing or sold under the Burberry Intellectual Property as being high-quality goods sponsored and approved by Burberry.

21. Accordingly, the Burberry Intellectual Property has achieved secondary meaning among consumers as identifiers of high-quality goods.

22. Genuine goods bearing the Burberry Intellectual Property are widely legitimately advertised and promoted by Burberry, its authorized distributors, and unrelated third parties via the Internet. Visibility on the Internet, particularly via Internet search engines and social media platforms is important to Burberry's overall marketing and consumer education efforts. Thus, Burberry expends significant monetary resources on Internet marketing, including search engine optimization ("SEO") strategies and search engine marketing strategies ("SEM"). Those strategies allow Burberry and its authorized retailers to fairly and legitimately educate consumers about the value associated with the Burberry brand and the goods sold thereunder.

Defendants' Infringing Activities

23. Defendants are each promoting, advertising, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale goods in interstate commerce bearing and/or using counterfeit and confusingly similar imitations of one or more of the Burberry Marks or the Burberry Copyrighted Work (the "Counterfeit Goods") through at least the e-commerce stores under the Store IDs. In connection therewith, Defendants use the listing and associated images identified by the infringing product numbers on Schedule "A" annexed hereto. Specifically, Defendants are using the Burberry Marks to initially attract online consumers and drive them to Defendants' e-commerce stores operating under the Store IDs. Defendants are each using identical copies of one or more of the Burberry Marks and/or Copyrighted Work for different quality goods. Burberry has used the Burberry Intellectual Property extensively and continuously before Defendants began offering counterfeit and confusingly similar imitations of Burberry's merchandise.

24. Defendants' Counterfeit Goods are of a quality substantially different than that of Burberry's genuine goods. Defendants are actively using, promoting and otherwise advertising, distributing, selling and/or offering for sale substantial quantities of their Counterfeit Goods with the knowledge and intent that such goods will be mistaken for the genuine high-quality goods offered for sale by Burberry, despite Defendants' knowledge that they are without authority to use the Burberry Marks or Copyrighted Work. Defendants' actions are likely to cause confusion of consumers, at the time of initial interest, sale, and in the post-sale setting, who will believe all of Defendants' goods offered for sale in or through Defendants' e-commerce stores are genuine goods originating from, associated with, and approved by Burberry.

25. Defendants advertise their e-commerce stores, including their Counterfeit Goods offered for sale, to the consuming public using at least, the Store IDs and associated store identification numbers. In so doing, Defendants improperly and unlawfully use one or more of the Burberry Marks or Copyrighted Work without Burberry's permission.

26. Most Defendants are concurrently employing and benefitting from substantially similar, advertising and marketing strategies based, in large measure, upon an unauthorized use of counterfeits and infringements of the Burberry Intellectual Property. Specifically, Defendants are using counterfeits and infringements of Burberry's famous name and the Burberry Intellectual Property to make their e-commerce stores selling illegal goods appear more relevant and attractive to consumers searching for both Burberry and non-Burberry goods and information online. By their actions, Defendants are contributing to the creation and maintenance of an illegal marketplace operating in parallel to the unlawful marketplace for Burberry's genuine goods. Defendants are causing individual, concurrent and indivisible harm to Burberry and the consuming public by (i) depriving Burberry and other third parties of their right to fairly compete for space online and within search engine results and reducing the visibility of Burberry's genuine goods on the World Wide Web, (ii) causing an overall degradation of the value of the goodwill associated with the Burberry Marks, and (iii) increasing Burberry's overall cost to market its goods and educate consumers about its brand via the Internet.

27. Defendants are concurrently conducting and targeting their counterfeiting and infringing activities toward consumers and likely causing unified harm within this district and elsewhere throughout the United States. As a result, Defendants are defrauding Burberry and the consuming public for Defendants' own benefit.

28. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants in this action had full knowledge of Burberry's ownership of the Burberry Intellectual Property, including its exclusive right to use and license such intellectual property and the goodwill associated therewith.

29. Defendants' use of the Burberry Marks and/or Copyrighted Work, including the promotion and advertisement, reproduction, distribution, sale and offering for sale of their Counterfeit Goods, is without Burberry's consent or authorization.

30. Defendants are engaging in the above-described illegal counterfeiting and infringing activities knowingly and intentionally or with reckless disregard or willful blindness to Burberry's rights for the purpose of trading on Burberry's goodwill and reputation. If Defendants' intentional counterfeiting and infringing activities are not permanently enjoined by this Court, Burberry and the consuming public will continue to be harmed.

31. Defendants' above identified infringing activities are likely to cause confusion, deception, and mistake in the minds of consumers before, during and after the time of purchase. Moreover, Defendants' wrongful conduct is likely to create a false impression and deceive customers, the public, and the trade into believing there is a connection or association between Burberry's genuine goods and Defendants' Counterfeit Goods, which there is not.

32. Given the visibility of Defendants' various e-commerce stores and the similarity of their concurrent actions, it is clear Defendants are either affiliated, or at a minimum, cannot help but know of each other's existence and the unified harm likely to be caused to Burberry and the overall consumer market in which they operate because of Defendants' concurrent actions.

33. Although some Defendants may be physically acting independently, they may properly be deemed to be acting in concert because the combined force of their actions serves to multiply the harm caused to Burberry.

34. Defendants' associated e-commerce payment and financial accounts, including but not limited to those specifically set forth on Schedule "A," are being used by Defendants to accept, receive, and deposit profits from Defendants' trademark counterfeiting and infringing and unfairly competitive activities connected to their Store IDs, and any other alias seller identification numbers used and/or controlled by them.

35. Further, Defendants are likely to transfer or secret their assets to avoid payment of any monetary judgment awarded to Burberry.

36. Burberry has no adequate remedy at law.

37. Burberry is suffering irreparable injury because of Defendants' unauthorized and wrongful use of the Burberry Intellectual Property. If Defendants' counterfeiting and infringing, and unfairly competitive activities are not permanently enjoined by this Court, Burberry and the consuming public will continue to be harmed while Defendants wrongfully earn a substantial profit.

38. The harm sustained by Burberry has been directly and proximately caused by Defendants' wrongful reproduction, use, advertisement, promotion, offers to sell, and sale of their Counterfeit Goods.

COUNT I - TRADEMARK COUNTERFEITING AND INFRINGEMENT
PURSUANT TO § 32 OF THE LANHAM ACT (15 U.S.C. § 1114)

39. Burberry hereby adopts and re-alleges the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 38 above.

40. This is an action for trademark counterfeiting and infringement against Defendants based on their use of counterfeit and confusingly similar imitations of the Burberry Marks in commerce in connection with the promotion, advertisement, distribution, offering for sale and sale of the Counterfeit Goods.

41. Defendants are promoting and otherwise advertising, selling, offering for sale, and distributing goods bearing and/or using counterfeits and/or infringements of one or more of the Burberry Marks. Defendants are continuously infringing and inducing others to infringe the Burberry Marks by using one or more of them to advertise, promote, sell, and offer to sell counterfeit and infringing Burberry branded goods.

42. Defendants' concurrent counterfeiting and infringing activities are likely to cause and are causing confusion, mistake, and deception among members of the trade and the general consuming public as to the origin and quality of Defendants' Counterfeit Goods.

43. Defendants' unlawful actions have caused and are continuing to cause unquantifiable and irreparable harm to Burberry and are unjustly enriching Defendants with profits at Burberry's expense.

44. Defendants' above-described unlawful actions constitute counterfeiting and infringement of the Burberry Marks in violation of Burberry's rights under § 32 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

45. Burberry has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable injury while Defendants are earning a substantial profit due to Defendants' above-described activities if Defendants are not permanently enjoined.

COUNT II - FALSE DESIGNATION OF ORIGIN
PURSUANT TO § 43(a) OF THE LANHAM ACT (15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

46. Burberry hereby adopts and re-alleges the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 38 above.

47. Defendants' Counterfeit Goods bearing, offered for sale and sold using copies of at least one of the Burberry Marks and/or Copyrighted Work have been widely advertised and offered for sale throughout the United States via e-commerce stores under the Store IDs.

48. Defendants' Counterfeit Goods bearing, offered for sale, and sold using copies of at least one of the Burberry Marks and/or Copyrighted Work are virtually identical in appearance to Burberry's genuine goods. However, Defendants' Counterfeit Goods are different in quality.

Accordingly, Defendants' activities are likely to cause confusion in the trade and among consumers as to at least the origin or sponsorship of their Counterfeit Goods.

49. Defendants have used in connection with their advertisement, offer for sale, and sale of their Counterfeit Goods, false designations of origin and false descriptions and representations, including words or other symbols and trade dress, which tend to falsely describe or represent such goods and have caused such goods to enter into commerce in the United States with full knowledge of the falsity of such designations of origin and such descriptions and representations, all to Burberry's detriment.

50. Defendants have each authorized infringing uses of one or more of the Burberry Marks and/or the Copyrighted Work in Defendants' advertisement and promotion of their counterfeit and infringing branded goods. Defendants have misrepresented to members of the consuming public that the Counterfeit Goods being advertised and sold by them are genuine, non-infringing goods.

51. Additionally, Defendants are simultaneously using counterfeits and infringements of one or more of the Burberry Marks and/or the Copyrighted Work in order to unfairly compete with Burberry and others for space within organic and paid search engine and social media results. Defendants are thereby jointly (i) depriving Burberry of a valuable marketing and educational space online which would otherwise be available to Burberry and (ii) reducing the visibility of Burberry's genuine goods on the World Wide Web and across social media platforms.

52. Defendants' above-described actions are in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(a).

53. Burberry has no adequate remedy at law, and has sustained both individual and indivisible injury caused by Defendants' concurrent conduct. Absent an entry of an injunction by this Court, Burberry will continue to suffer irreparable injury to its goodwill and business reputation while Defendants are earning a substantial profit.

COUNT III – COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT
PURSUANT TO 17 U.S.C. § 501
(Against Defendant Numbers 39, 118, 122, 127, 130, 143, and 154 Only)

54. Plaintiffs hereby adopt and re-allege the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 38 above.

55. At least Defendant Numbers 39, 118, 122, 127, 130, 143, and 154 have infringed and will continue to infringe the Burberry Copyrighted Work, at least, by copying, selling, advertising, reproducing and placing into a chain of distribution, unauthorized copies or derivations of Burberry's copyrighted work in violation of 17 U.S.C. § 501.

56. Upon information and belief, Defendant Numbers 39, 118, 122, 127, 130, 143, and 154 may be knowingly and willfully engaging in the copyright infringement alleged herein for the purpose of profiting therefrom.

57. Burberry has suffered and will continue to suffer irreparable injury while Defendants profit due to the above-described activities if Defendants are not preliminarily and permanently enjoined, while Defendants are earning a substantial profit.

COUNT IV - COMMON LAW UNFAIR COMPETITION.

58. Burberry hereby adopts and re-alleges the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 38 above.

59. This is an action against Defendants based on their promotion, advertisement, distribution, sale and/or offering for sale of goods bearing and/or using marks that are virtually identical to one or more of the Burberry Marks and/or Copyrighted Work in violation of Florida's common law of unfair competition.

60. Specifically, Defendants are each promoting and otherwise advertising, selling, offering for sale and distributing goods using and/or bearing counterfeits and infringements of one or more of the Burberry Marks and/or the Copyrighted Work. Defendants are also each using counterfeits and infringements of one or more of the Burberry Marks to unfairly compete with Burberry and others for (i) space in search engine and social media results across an array of search terms and (ii) visibility on the World Wide Web.

61. Defendants' infringing activities are likely to cause and are causing confusion, mistake and deception among consumers as to the origin and quality of Defendants' e-commerce stores as a whole and all products sold therein by their use of the Burberry Marks and/or Copyrighted Work.

62. Burberry has no adequate remedy at law and is suffering irreparable injury because of Defendants' concurrent actions, while Defendants are earning a substantial profit.

COUNT V - COMMON LAW TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT

63. Burberry hereby adopts and re-alleges the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 38 above.

64. Burberry is the owner of all common law rights in and to the Burberry Marks.

65. This is an action for common law trademark infringement against Defendants based on their promotion, advertisement, offering for sale, and sale of their Counterfeit Goods using one or more of the Burberry Marks.

66. Specifically, each Defendant is promoting, and otherwise advertising, distributing, offering for sale, and selling goods bearing and/or using infringements of one or more of the Burberry Marks.

67. Defendants' infringing activities are likely to cause and are causing confusion, mistake and deception among consumers as to the origin and quality of Defendants' Counterfeit Goods bearing and/or using the Burberry Marks.

68. Burberry has no adequate remedy at law and is suffering irreparable injury because of Defendants' concurrent actions, while Defendants are earning a substantial profit.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

69. WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demand judgment on all Counts of this Complaint and an award of equitable relief and monetary relief against Defendants as follows:

a. Entry of a permanent injunction pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a), The All Writs Act, and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65 enjoining Defendants, their agents, representatives, servants, employees, and all those acting in concert or participation therewith, from manufacturing or causing to be manufactured, importing, advertising or promoting, distributing, selling or offering to sell their Counterfeit Goods; from infringing, counterfeiting, or diluting the Burberry Marks or Copyrighted Work; from using the Burberry Marks or Copyrighted Work, or any mark or design similar thereto, in connection with the sale of any unauthorized goods; from using any logo, trade name or copyright or trademark or design that may be calculated to falsely advertise the services or goods of Defendants as being sponsored by, authorized by, endorsed by, or in any way associated with Plaintiffs; from falsely representing themselves as being connected with Plaintiffs, through sponsorship or association, or engaging in any act that is likely to falsely cause members of the trade and/or of the
